

ARTS & CRAFTS STYLE
MISSION[™]

The Mission table takes its inspiration, and its name, from Mission furniture. With the clean, unornamented lines of the arts & crafts style, this table features distinctive corbels, set into massive support posts resting on two base trestles that are connected by a broad bridge stretcher.

ARTS & CRAFTS STYLE MISSION™

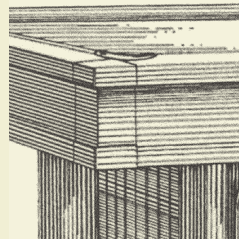

DESIGN

Mission style slats and corbelled support posts

Brunswick's stunning Mission table is the truest representation of the Mission style available in a billiard table. It anchors the motif of any room in which it is placed, stating simple, tasteful elegance and functional beauty. This unique design has even received a patent

(No. D408, 488). Mission cherry-finish tables are constructed of exotic Brazilian amapa, while Mission oak-finish tables are constructed of quarter-sawn oak. Both tables feature mother-of-pearl sights and are available in eight- and nine-foot models.

Fully enclosed pockets

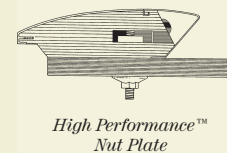

A wall cue rack has been designed to complement this table.
